

NRHH Building Block Chapter of the Year

Check Sheet

School Name: _____

Purpose: The NRHH Building Block Chapter of the Year Award is given to the chapter that shows outstanding growth and development during the year of nomination.

Eligibility: Any NRHH affiliated chapter may submit a bid for this award. The award shall have an eligibility period from the No Frills conference to No Frills conference of the following year. The bid must be in writing to the Regional Director by the date that he or she specifies. The number of copies will be determined by the number of NRHH chapters that will be in attendance at the No Frills Conference.

Pages: The bid shall not exceed thirty (30) pages in length (10-12 point type). A page is defined as a side with print; this includes appendices, letters of recommendation, text, etc. The title page shall not be included in the thirty (30) pages, but dividers shall be included in the page count. The title page shall contain the chapter, school and the region name.

Selection: The Chapter of the Year award will be selected by the NRHH Chapter representatives present at the annual No Frills Conference. No member from a bidding school will be present during the selection process. In order to be eligible for this award the Chapter must be in good standing with the NRHH National Office.

Award: The winning school shall receive a plaque.
