

NACURH
CORPORATE OFFICE

The NACURH Connection Submission Topic Suggestions

- Advisors- Suggestions to advisors about their roles and responsibilities.
- Alcohol- New and existing policies concerning alcohol as well as surveys on alcohol consumption from various campuses. Existing policies concerning alcohol along with surveys on alcohol consumption from various campuses.
- Alcohol Awareness Programming- Programming, which is specifically aimed at alcohol awareness and consumption.
- Apathy- Programming and suggestions to combat negative attitudes and lack of enthusiasm in the residence halls.
- Architectural Facilities- Research and construction of new buildings and renovations of old halls.
- Athletic Programming- Athletic programming from bowling, boxing, and basketball to mock Olympics.
- Awards and Scholarships- A section explaining awards, scholarships, recognition programs, and other incentives for students on your campus.
- Banquets and Ceremonies- Programs of the banquet type nature typically used for recognition.
- Community Service- Programs for raising money for a charity or donating time to a community organization.
- Comprehensive Evaluations- A section comprised of surveys dealing with many areas of interest on campus and in the residence hall system including recreational facilities, enrollment, and academic courses.
- Conference Planning-The planning, implementation and wrap-ups of many different types of conferences in NACURH.
- Constitution- Constitutions and how they are written, revised and used.
- Damages- Dealing with many types of damages and ways to stop or repair them.
- Diversity- Programs dealing with academics and some current issues.
- Energy Awareness- These programs are on topics such as conservation and recycling of paper and aluminum.
- Faculty- A closer look at some campus' attempts to bring students and faculty together through closer interaction on either a social or exchange basis.
- Family Programming- Programming dealing with parents and sibling weekends and visits.
- Finances and Budgets- How to finance and RHA, activity fees, and how to use them, student banks, and budgeting.
- First year Experience- Programs and activities designed specifically for the first year students.
- Food Services- A section comprised of files dealing with many of the aspects of food service that concern students and programming involving food science.

- Fundraising- A wide array of fund raising programs used on other campuses including long-term, on-going programs and one night "quick" programs.
- General Regulations- Campus policies and legislation on subjects such as lofts, appliances, firearms, and other areas.
- How To's, Ideas, and Publicity- Areas of programming which are not involved in the actual program itself, such as brainstorming for ideas, putting those ideas in motion, and publicizing the events.
- Judicial Systems- A closer look at judicial systems and policies from other campuses around the nation.
- Leadership Training and Development- Leadership training and development, workshops on leadership skills, ways to deal with other organizations, and proper ways to work within your group.
- Legal Questions- Legal problems and questions in the hall, in RHA, and on campus.
- Live and Learning Concepts- Exploring new and different ways to learn about different areas and subjects by experiencing them through your environment.
- NCCs Additional Information- Miscellaneous information pertaining to the duties of the NCC such as organizing a delegation, filing systems, workbooks, and conference planning.
- Newsletters- Many different approaches to resident awareness through newsletters are used on a lot of campuses.
- NRHH Chapter- Starting and running such a worthwhile organization on your campus as well as files on programs sponsored by NRHH chapters.
- Occupancy and Recruitment- Various aspects of residence halls occupancy and campus recruitment including high school visitations, on-campus living requirements, overcrowding, and other areas give you the answers that other campuses have come up with.
- Orientation- "How to's" and ideas for orientation in many areas from freshman students, resident assistants, academics, to RHA and hall executive officers.
- Radio, TVs, Movies, and Computers- The availability of this type of programming in the halls and some of the concerns involved.
- RHA Promotion- RHA weeks and other ways that your RHA can promote itself to residents and the entire campus.
- Social Programming- Dances, theme parties, social, and other programs which offer fun times to meet new people.
- Recreational Programming- Programs including outdoor festivals, roommate games, and casino nights.
- Residence Hall Improvements- The many ways of improving residence halls, such as room painting policies.

- Residence Hall Student Staff- Perspectives on the various aspects of the RA position along with different types of student staff positions.
- RHA/Student Government- The approaches of other campuses to form, structure, and/or organize RHA governments.
- Security- Programs and procedures used on other campuses that deal with campus security.
- Student Interests- A wide variety of information on subjects that concern students and residents, such as stress management, racial issues, women's roles, special interest teams, drug abuse, student health, physical fitness, and many more.
- Transportation- Various aspects of transportation such as buses, bicycles, and parking that effect campuses.
- Visitation- Various types of visitation policies, such as open house, 24 hour visitation, extended lounge visitation hours, and escort policies.

Remember! You can always submit regional and national bids created by your school!